"BE OUR GUEST" POLICY

The Glass & Ethnic Festival policy is to treat all visitors like Guests. We are dedicated as a committee to provide the best possible experience to our guests as they enjoy the festival. You as a vendor, represent the Mt. Pleasant Glass & Ethnic Festival through your participation. We are requiring you to adhere to our policy and act Friendly, Courteous and Professional at all times toward our guests.

SAFETY

All food vendors must have fire extinguishers, and all propane tanks must be secured in an upright position.

OVER

JURYING / ACCEPTANCE

Payment must be made only by check; if accepted it will be deposited. If your application is not accepted your check and application will be returned. Vendors will be notified their application status via mail by July 8, 2015. If the application is accepted it will become a contract. Acceptance criteria is strongly weighted towards vendors with demonstrations. If applicable, demonstration times must be posted. The festival committee reserves the right to provide vendor contact information including name, phone numbers etc. to customers and/or media.

LICENSES

A Pa. Sales Tax or a temporary sales tax license is required for the length of the event. Applications for the licensing are available from: The Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, Bureau of Collections and Taxpayers Services Greensburg # (724) 832-5283. Vendors must provide a copy of the license with the application and a Pa. Dept. of Agriculture temporary health and food employees certification (Food Safety Handling). Licenses are required for all food vendors. Any questions call Dept. of Agriculture (717) 787-4315. License must be available at your booth upon request and displayed at all times.

INSURANCE

Vendors must carry comprehensive general liability insurance. In addition food vendors must have product liability insurance, health license and food employees' certification. For-profit food vendors must carry workman's compensation and must provide a copy of insurance coverage with the application or complete a waiver form with the application and contract. The vendor must include the Borough of Mt. Pleasant and the Mt. Pleasant Glass & Ethnic Festival Committee as second insured on all insurance policies.

DRESS CODE AND INTERFERENCE

Vendors must be dressed (no sayings on shirts) and act appropriately while serving the general public. Old Town Area vendors must dress in 1800's costume. Vendors displays cannot interfere with adjacent booths or extend into or beyond your assigned booth space. No loud radios, televisions, public address systems, alcohol, smoking or pets permitted in your booth or space.

VENDOR PARKING

Free parking is provided for all vendors cars, merchandising trailers and trucks at Frick Park next to the borough building located 2-3 blocks from the festival. We assume no liability for theft or damage in any case.

SATURDAY SEPT. 26th, NO PARKING ON MAIN ST. FROM 1 PM - 4:30 PM DUE TO OUR PARADE.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

The festival will be held rain or shine. All booths will be on the street and there is no concern for a messy area in front of your booth. Vendor must be open during festival hours. Side and backdrops on tent booths must be removed during windy conditions. The selected vendors are required to keep their booth open throughout the festival hours despite inclement weather conditions. Booths should be designed to handle all kinds of weather, and if severe weather conditions occur, the festival committee will determine the appropriate action to be taken.

STAFFING

Vendor's booth is to be open and staffed during all festival event times.

SECURITY

Inventory and equipment may be left set-up in the booths each day. Security will patrol the grounds; however, neither the festival management, the sponsors, nor the Borough of Mt. Pleasant can assume responsibility for damages or theft.

GARBAGE

Bulk rubbish and large trash must be taken to dumpsters after each festival day and during set-up and teardown. The dumpsters are located at the Mt. Pleasant Journal parking lot and at the Dollar General parking lot. Decorating materials and 90-lb. tarpaper floor mat must be removed the last day of the festival. Please keep your booth area clean and uncluttered 5 feet around your space at all times. Food vendors must use grease hot and cold barrels and floor mats. Gray water must be disposed of in gray water barrels. As you know the festival is by invitation only, failure to comply with the rules can discourage the committee on your acceptance.

ELECTRICAL

A limited amount of electric is available for all vendors. Only a combination of 60 AMPS are permitted for each vendor regardless of size of booth. Please see the application for number of outlets needed. All vendors are responsible for providing their own lights and 100 Ft. No. 12 extension cord per circuit (20 AMPS). Food vendors are responsible for 100 Ft. lead wire hook-up with 50 AMP 4 wire power outlet plug as an end for trailers and 100 Ft. No. 12 extension wire for booths with a combination maximum of 60 AMPS usage. Only one 220 single receptacle for food trailers (40 AMPS) and 110 single receptacle (20 AMPS).

REFUNDS

The submitting of an application and all fees is a commitment to participate in the festival. For security reasons all checks will be cashed by the festival committee. After jurying, if you are not accepted as a vendor, (Allow approx. 2 weeks after deadline, July 8th 2015) all fees will be returned. No refunds will be made once your application is accepted, but in special cases within reasoning it may be considered. If so ½ (one half) of the amount of fee for this will be credited for next year's booth fee. You must exhibit all three days, and refunds will not be made if you do not comply with the festivals rules and regulations and for any reason deemed by the festival committee you are asked to leave the festival.

NON-COMPLIANCE

Non-compliance with these rules and regulations may result in the termination of your contract and could result in not being permitted to set up at future festivals. The vendor agrees not to hold Mt. Pleasant Glass & Ethnic Festival Committee and its agents responsible for any suits, claims, damages, loss or damage of property sustained during the period of the festival. Exhibitors may not sublet any portion of their space to another exhibitor. This contract shall be deemed to have been made in the State of Pennsylvania & shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of such state. In the event that legal action is required to enforce this contract or any of the items thereof, such action shall be brought in the Courts of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, & the vendor expressly consents the jurisdiction of such courts. The parties agree to accept service of process in such action by ordinary mail sent to their business addresses as set forth in this contract. The parties agree to accept specifications and requirements and application and contract represent the entire agreement between The Mt. Pleasant Glass & Ethnic Festival and the vendor. The Festival Committee will not be liable for refunds or any other liabilities whatsoever for the failure to fulfill this contract due to reasons of the enclosure in which the festival is to be produced, being before or during the show is destroyed by fire, or other calamity, or by an act of God, public enemy, strikes, statutes, ordinances, or legal authority or any other act beyond the control of the Festival Committee which makes it impossible or impractical to hold the festival.

GAMBLING, RAFFLES, GAME OF CHANCE ETC.

No gambling or games of chance are permitted. Raffles must be submitted in a separate letter prior to the event and must be approved by festival committee.
